

Premium Listing part 3

Description:

The last part of our contact information is for your web site. Your existing clients and advertising base will find it easy enough to find if you add it to your letterheads and print advertising. But the real value is in producing new clients for you. if your site has been up any length of time you're sure to be receiving offers to Optiumize your site for the search engines, to make your site search engine friendly by fine tuning your key words and placing links to your site for you. the better companies will tell you all links are not created equal. The best links are relevant by geography and category content. Exactly the type of link in your listing. Don't expect your link here to shoot you to the top of MSN or Google it's just not going to happen. the top listings on these search engines go to sites with many thousands of links. Instead concentrate your efforts on Local Directories and Local Search Engines. this is especially true if your business requires face to f
